SECURITIES LITIGATION | EMPLOYMENT & LABOR | BUSINESS LITIGATION

Valeri Pappas's litigation experience includes participating in all phases of multi-million dollar litigation, jury trials and arbitrations. Her practice areas include securities litigation, commercial litigation, personal injury, employment and general civil litigation. Valeri's securities experience is primarily in representing aggrieved individual and institutional investors in securities fraud actions.

Valeri also advises clients with employment matters such as drafting and revising employee handbooks, conducting workplace investigations, and discrimination and harassment training. She assists both employers and employees in dispute resolution, severance agreements and non-compete agreements. Valeri is on the Board of Directors of the Boys & Girls Club of Metro Denver and the Colorado Women's Bar Association Foundation, teaches trial skills at the National Institute for Trial Advocacy, and was in the 2017 class of Leadership Denver. She also served as an Adjunct Professor for the University of Colorado Law School in the fall of 2019.
